BANANA PANCAKES

INGREDIENTS

1 large ripe banana, peeled and chopped

2 medium eggs

¼ teaspoon baking powder

¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon (optional)

Spray oil

INSTRUCTIONS

Mash the banana in a mixing bowl with a fork until a smooth paste forms.

Crack the eggs into the same bowl and whisk with a fork to form a batter, before adding the baking powder and cinnamon and mixing thoroughly.

Coat a large, non stick frying pan with spray oil, and heat over a medium-high heat. Add a tablespoon of the batter per pancake to the pan, keeping them spaced apart. Cook for 2–3 minutes, until golden brown on the bottom, then flip over and cook for a further 2–3 minutes, until cooked through.

"Pecan" is from an Algonquian word, meaning a nut requiring a stone to crack.

SERVES 4 | TOTAL TIME: 40 MINUTES

SPICY PECAN POPCORN CHICKEN

Canola oil cooking spray

95 grams coarse dry wholemeal breadcrumbs or Grape-Nuts cereal

50 grams pecan pieces

2 tablespoons chilli powder

¼ teaspoon salt

1 egg white

1 tablespoon water

½ kilogram boneless, skinless chicken breast, cut into 1-inch cubes

55 grams low-fat mayonnaise

60 millilitres low-fat buttermilk or milk

1 teaspoon dried dill or 1 tablespoon fresh

½ teaspoon garlic powder

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 230°C/450°F/gas 8 and thoroughly coating a wire rack with cooking spray then placing it on a foil-lined baking sheet.

Combine the breadcrumbs, or cereal, pecans, chilli powder and salt together in a food processor, until the pecans are finely chopped and the chilli powder is evenly incorporated. Transfer the mix to a shallow dish.

Next, whisk the egg white and water in a separate shallow dish. Drop in the chicken and turn a few times to coat, then add the nut mixture, turning to coat evenly before shaking off any excess. You can now dispose of any remaining egg/pecan mix.

Arrange the chicken on the rack and coat with cooking spray. Bake the chicken for about 15 minutes or until no longer pink in the centre.

While the chicken cooks, make the dip: whisk mayonnaise, buttermilk, or milk, dill and garlic powder together in a small bowl.

Serve the chicken piping hot along with the dip.

Try making your own fresh breadcrumbs: trim the crusts from wholemeal bread, then tear the bread into pieces and blitz in a food processor to make coarse crumbs. If you prefer a finer texture, just process for a little longer.

Seed and Nut butters are pretty interchangeable in recipes.

SERVES 9 | TOTAL TIME: 20 MINUTES

NUT FREE CHOCOLATE CHUNK COOKIES

INGREDIENTS

63 grams natural smooth sunflower seed butter
2 tablespoons packed brown sugar
2 tablespoons pure maple syrup
2½ tablespoons coconut oil or grapeseed oil
6 tablespoons raw sunflower seeds
3 tablespoons cassava flour
1 teaspoon ground chia seed
¼ teaspoon baking soda
¼ teaspoon fine sea salt
60 grams dark chocolate squares

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 180°C/350°F/gas 4 and lining a large baking sheet with parchment paper.

Combine the sunflower seed butter, brown sugar, maple syrup, and oil together until smooth.

Blitz the sunflower seeds in a food processor for about 40 to 60 seconds until a fine meal forms – be careful not to over process into a butter- like consistency

Stir the ground sunflower seeds, cassava flour, chia seeds, baking soda, and salt into the wet mixture until thoroughly combined. The dough will be very sticky but this perfectly normal.

Chop up the chocolate, ensuring you reserve one heaped tablespoon for later. Stir the remaining chocolate into the dough.

Arrange small mounds of dough (use a tablespoon) onto the baking sheet a few cm apart.

No need to flatten the mounds as they'll spread out during baking. Then, press a few chunks of the reserved chocolate into each mound.

Bake for 10 to 11 minutes to create soft, chewy cookies.

Remove from the oven and cool for 10 minutes, then very carefully, transfer the cookies to a rack for another 10 to 15 minutes.

The cookies will be very fragile until they are fully cooled, so be patient and allow them too cool thoroughly.
